Shipping Instructions:

Artists who live more than 150 miles from the LCAA may ship their work. Shipped work must have your name, title, medium & price attached to the work.

Work must arrive at the Lancaster County Art Association, 149 Precision Ave. Strasburg PA 17579 May 24 or 25. We will be closed Mon. Tues. & Wed. so make sure of your delivery dates. All work must include a pre-paid shipping label with bar code with the pickup charge included, for return of work. We will not accept any other methods and your work will not be returned until we receive a proper label. We recommend you use UPS, we have had less problems with them. We do not take account numbers, if you have an account you are responsible for setting up any pick ups.

Shipped work must be framed with plexiglass, we do not take any responsibility for broken glass. Do not use styrofoam peanuts when packing your work. Use packing materials that will hold up for the return shipping. We do not accept wooden or heavy metal containers. Remember, we need to be able to unpack and repack easily, we are dealing with numerous pieces and your help will enable us to get your work back to you in a timely manner. It will take us several days to repack all works at the end of the show, please don't set up for pickups the last day of the exhibit or the day after. Feel free to call us at 717-687-7061 or e-mail us at lcaanews@yahoo.com to find out the status of your piece.

We do not assemble complicated pieces. We recommend hand-delivering your work if it needs to be assembled on site. Work weighing more than 100 pounds must be hand delivered on June 2,3 & 4.
